

SQUASH NEW ZEALAND IS SEEKING A

National Development Coach

An opportunity to work with New Zealand's young squash talent to assist them to perform and succeed on the world stage.

New Zealand squash has a proud history including Susan Devoy and Ross Norman in the past and Paul Coll and Joelle King in the present. New Zealand has also topped the Commonwealth Games table at the last two games.

The new full-time role, based in Auckland New Zealand, will lead the development and directly support our nationally identified young talent. The role's purpose is to prepare our future international players for success at professional events through to 2030 Commonwealth Games.

Do you have a proven coaching record and understand international squash trends, if so click below to read more details of our exciting new role.

TO READ MORE ABOUT THE ROLE - CLICK HERE

